

Microscopic tables

Microscopic tables from Labflex consist of individual worktops that can be ergonomically adjusted in height to suit the individual user. Two padded armrests which are mounted on the two side plates, so they provide optimal support. The armrests can be adjusted in height and angle in relation to the worktop. The worktop is in 16 mm easy to clean compact laminate

For more information, please contact Labflex.

